The official growl of the Bellingham Central Pride

This week is Thanksgiving. Remember to give thanks.

November 17, 2011

Our program on December 8th is SSA Marine, as well as an induction of new members.

Last Week our DG Tom Bond, ZC Cindy Grandquis, and PDG Judy Portas presented our club with several awards.

And Lion Chet MC'd the Veterans' Day activities.

Christmas Party: On Thursday, December 22nd the schools are letting kids out early just so they can come to our Christmas Party! It will be fun for young and young at heart.

Northwest Lions Leadership Institute – On February 9 – 12, 2012, at the Wesley Inn in Gig Harbor, you can improve your ability as a leader, and get yourself ready for new challenges, opportunities, and responsibilities. You can learn how to develop your unique leadership style for maximum impact. Find out more at www.nwionsleadershipinstitute.org (this website may still be under construction), or talk to past attendees Patty Allen, John Wilson, Wayne Weed, or Judy Sturlaugson. Scholarship funds available.

The Lions International Christmas Ship is setting sail this year on Saturday, December 10th and Sunday the 11th. And at the special meeting last Monday it was decided to keep the Christmas Ship as a Bellingham Central project.

Concessions News: We are having talks with the newly forming Bellingham United Football Club, concerning their needs for concessions this spring. The team is part of the Pacific Coast Soccer League and the matches will be at Civic Field in May, June, and July. And the Bellingham Bulldogs and the Bellingham Blitz football teams are no longer wanting any of the cut of concessions profits after they saw what we do with our funds to help the community.

Tree Planting at the MD19 Office on Saturday, November 19th from 9 AM to 1 PM. Volunteers with shovels can help plant 10 trees in the Lions Memorial Garden, as well as install an enlarged water line to the irrigation system (power trencher will be there). Contact Lion Ken Henderson with questions: 739-6751.
